Turin, April 23. N. S.

HIS Royal Highneſs returned with the Court laſt Night to the Venerie, where they deſign to ſtay 'till the 4th of the next Month, at which time they will come to this City, that they may aſſiſt at the Annual Proceſſion which is made on that Day in Honour of the Saint Sudario. The Earl of Rochford left this Place laſt Monday, in order to wait for the Arrival of General Stanhope at Genoa. Lieutenant-General Roccavion arrived here laſt Week from Vienna, with a Deſign to make this next Campaign in Savoy; but his Regiment which ſerved on this Frontier from the beginning of the War, marched out of Italy at the end of the laſt Campaign into Hungary. The laſt Advices from the Frontiers ſay, that fourteen of the Enemies Battalions were actually marched towards Germany and Flanders; the greater part of thoſe Troops are to reinforce the Marſhal d' Harcourt on the Rhine, great Detachments having been lately commanded from thence to join the French Army in the Netherlands. Yeſterday an Officer arrived here from Barcelona, with Letters for his Royal Highneſs, dated the 1ſt Inſtant. This Gentleman reports that Marſhal Staremberg had been dangerouſly ill, but was perfectly recovered; that the Armies were aſſembling on both ſides in order to take the Field; and that by Advices from the Enemy's Frontiers, the Duke of Anjou's Troops were in great want of Neceſſaries, and their Magazines unprovided with Forage.

Warſaw, April 27. N. S. On Friday laſt the Saxon Cavalry, conſiſting of twelve Regiments, were received into the Service of this Republick, which Affair was adjuſted with the Great Generals of Poland and Lithuania, and the Saxons are to be paid on the Eſtabliſhment for the Payment of the Foreign Infantry. The Great Mareſchal of Lithuania, Monſieur Wollowitz, is nominated by the King and Commonwealth, to reſide at the Court of his Czariſh Majeſty, in quality of their Ambaſſador-Extraordinary. Monſieur de Rebinski, Chamberlain of the Palatinate of Culm, is likewiſe appointed Ambaſſador-Extraordinary to the Ottoman Port, and he is ordered to repair to Conſtantinople, or where ever the Grand Signior ſhall keep his Court. The Czar is gone on the Expedition againſt Wybourg, and his Army is commanded to form the Siege of that Place, which is of great Importance to the Swedes: This City is the Metropolis of the Principality of Carelia, ſituated on a Bay of Finland, and hath a very good Haven, and a ſtrong Caſtle. The Czarowitz, his Czariſh Majeſty's Son, is expected here this Evening. The King of Poland went yeſterday to a pleaſant Country Seat called Villa-nova, about two Leagues up the River Viſtula. The Earl of Stairs, her Britannick Majeſty's Envoy-Extraordinary to King Auguſtus, having finiſhed his Negotiations at this Court, intends to ſet out on Wedneſday next for Flanders, and return to his Command in the Army.

Vienna, April 30. N. S. Mareſchal Thaun's Departure for Italy is deferred to the latter end of this Week, it having been retarded for ſeveral Days, becauſe of the Difficulties this Court hath met with in providing a ſufficient Sum for the Subſiſtance of their Forces, which they are now reſolved to raiſe by the Sale of the Dutchy of Mirandola. There have been large Offers made by the Dukes of Mirandola, Parma and Modena for that Dutchy. The Duke of Modena has ninety thouſand Piſtoles ready at Milan, to be immediately delivered to the Imperial Commiſſaries; and it is not doubted but the Preference will be given to him, in Conſideration of his great Services to the Houſe of Auſtria, and his ſteady Adherence to the Intereſt of the Alliance. The Elector of Hanover has notified to this Court, that he cannot take upon him the Command of the Army upon the Upper Rhine, and it is thought the Supream Direction will be given to Prince Eugene. Prince Emanuel of Soiſſons, Nephew to Prince Eugene, is arrived here, and will ſet out in two or three Days to Command his Regiment, which is to ſerve this Summer upon the Rhine. Letters from Conſtantinople of the 29th of March ſay, that all the Motions and Warlike Preparations which the Port had lately made, tended only to amuſe the King of Sweden, and to haſten the Concluſion of their Treaty with Muſcow, and their Pretences of conducting his Swediſh Majeſty through Poland with forty thouſand Men are vaniſhed, they excuſing their not Performance of their Promiſe, by telling the King that the Mufti will not grant his Sentence for it, being contrary to their Law. His Majeſty therefore, (who relied on the Declarations of the Turks, and had ſo long neglected taking other requiſite Meaſures for this Retreat,) finds himſelf deluded, and is very much at a Loſs what Courſe to take, being ſufficiently undeceived of any hopes of Aſſiſtance from the Turks. Monſieur Deſalleurs, who is appointed to relieve Monſieur Ferioll at Conſtantinople, was expected at the Port in few days, being arrived at Jaſſi in Moldavia. That Miniſter was very deſirous to have viſited the King of Sweden at Bender, but the Port gave expreſs Orders to the contrary, reſolving to prevent the Umbrages which ſuch an Interview might have given. The French continue to tranſport vaſt quantities of Corn, which they buy up at any Price upon the Coaſts of Turky.

Berlin, May 6. N. S. On the 27th of the laſt Month his Pruſſian Majeſty went to Landsberg, where he will continue ſome Days for the benefit of the Waters of Freyenwald. The Queen arrived at the ſame Place from Grabo the Day following; and on the firſt Inſtant the Prince and Princeſs went thither, where they celebrated the Coronation of her Britannick Majeſty with great Solemnity on the 4th. Letters from Coningsberg in Pruſſia ſay, that City was entirely free from the Plague, and that not one Perſon had died of any infectious Diſtemper in ſome Weeks; ſo that they hoped the Commerce with that Town would be ſoon reſtored, there being now no Apprehenſions of any further Contagion.

Bruſſels, May 14. N. S. This Morning a Courier from Verſailles paſſed through this Place, with Diſpatches from the Court of France to their Miniſters at Gertruydenberg. The Heſſian Troops, conſiſting of ten thouſand Men, are to encamp this Evening at Waveren, within five Leagues of Bruſſels; and on the 16th they are to move again, and march towards the Army. The Mareſchal de Villars was expected laſt Night on the Frontiers, and the Enemy continue to aſſemble their Forces. In the mean time the Confederates have taken all poſſible Precautions for covering the Siege of Douay, if the Enemy ſhould attempt its Relief. Camps are already marked out on both ſides the Scarpe for drawing up the Army in order of Battel, and a great number of Workmen are employed in improving the Advantages of the Ground. Letters from Madrid of the 28th of the laſt Month, ſay, that the Duke of Anjou was not yet ſet out for the Army in Arragon.

From the Camp before Douay, May 15. N. S. Some Detachments of the Enemy's Troops that are encamped near
